Our daughter, Aditi, studies in class 9 and have varied interests - from reading to photography to painting to writing poems and the list goes on. We have been as confused as she is with this multiple choices. So, we went to "Academics & beyond" to seek help in understanding where her real strengths lie & where she needed improvement.

After she took the online assessments provided by "Academics & beyond", they came up with a detailed report listing Aditi's strengths & weaknesses and the career choices that she could focus on. Mr .Srinath, who did a comprehensive session with us explaining the report, listed Aditi's traits to perfection and suggested how she can go about in her career.

The whole exercise was indeed very worthy, as a list of career choices emerged for Aditi, based on her strengths.

We strongly recommend "Academics & beyond" to all individuals who do not have clarity on what their

I went to Academics and Beyond for my son's career development, counseling and to understand for himself and me/my wife were looking for help on who could give technical detailing with career options & how one could take the positives and strength beyond & clear many doubts on what next in our mind. He underwent online tests covering 100+ questions which then compiled into structured report to see for himself, how he can take the Best Forward Leap based on psychometric tests. It is indeed great to meet Mr. Srinath, who helped us to understand for over few hours meeting, he was very kind person to extend his time from 90minutes original timeframe and was not at all in any hurry. He was so patient and explained to us and my son, what is the Rightful next step. His report is very comprehensive and stays at macro level to begin with, and also upto what type of careers and changes suggested to help navigate. His advice is immensely helpful and I strongly suggest Students who are overwhelmed with so many data in today's world, should simply Zero in on Mr Srinath-Academics & Beyond, to find out the best possible Navigation path of Career and beyond. The report was actually so close to what my son's present outlook & traits, and clearly brings out those Hidden truths and helps to greatly clarify to Parents if they are in dilemma about their children's doubts. Many thanks to Srinath for his assistance

Me being a veteran of Indian Armed Forces have always been in awe about the psychological tests that all officer hopefuls face while undergoing the gruelling SSB interview.

I for one believe that each and every young boy or girl should face this test at least once in a lifetime. Here you get an insight into what you actually are and where do you lack (only your perspective which may only be 30% of actuals).

After subjecting my son to the test by Academics and Beyond, I am sure that my son is better equipped to face the world with very thorough knowledge of his strengths and weaknesses. It wouldn't have been possible without the phenomenal debrief by Mr Srinath who was so convincing in opening the doors of clarity to my son.

I think our society will benefit with more Srinaths who are focussed in their goal of making this world a

Dear sir,
Firstly thank you very much for the time taken and for the detailed explanation to my daughter. I never expected such a detailed and accurate report on the personal attributes. I have seen a positive vibes N confidence in my daughter after you have stressed on her strengths and your way of explaining her to overcome her weakness was extremely good and reaching out.

I wanted career options for my 22 year old son who had dropped out if law course midway. Mr Srinath was extremely encouraging and reassuring throughout. The analysis of the personality was near perfect I must say. The report was detailed and answered all our concerns.We are ever grateful to A and B and specially to Mr Srinath for guiding us in every aspect. Thanks very much

This has been a valuable exercise for me. I took up the assessments as recommended. The counselling session is very useful. Mr. Srinath very patiently explained the findings and how to derive meaning. My expectation has been fully met and have some concrete steps identified for betterment. I would highly recommend this self assessment. Gives truly deeper insights. Ofcourse, our inputs have to be honestly put in.

It is definitely one of the best career counselling services I've come across (have been to a couple of counselling centers for my brother). Most consultancies are impersonal when it comes to the people who turn up for counselling. Mr.Srinath is genuinely interested in helping people who come to him for career advice. I would recommend anyone looking for a career and professional advice to go here. My personal experience with Academics and Beyond has been great.

My son took the psychometric test conducted by A&B. It was really worth it. Mr. Srinath not only analysed the scores but also counselled my son so well that my son is more confident and overcame most of his inhibitions to a great extent. Mr. Srinath was tremendous, he spared a lot of time in explaining the strengths, weakness and opportunities depending on my son's traits. His knowledge is vast and a very down to earth person.
